Family Resource Network presents:

Making Sense of Social Security
An Introduction to Social Security Disability Programs
For Your Child with Special Needs

Presenter: Alexandra Queen, Benefits Consultant

When: Tuesday, January 15, 2013
Time: 6:30 – 8:30 p.m.
Where: San Joaquin County Office of Education
Wentworth Education Center, Chartville 1 Room
2707 Transworld Drive, Stockton

Topics will include:
• What are the Social Security disability programs (SSI and SSDI)?
• How do I know if my child is eligible for a disability program?
• Will my child’s eligibility ever change?
• How do things change when my child turns 18?
• Resources
• And there will be time for questions and answers.

This workshop is free to all parents/primary caregivers of children with special needs in Amador, Calaveras, San Joaquin, Stanislaus or Tuolumne Counties, and professionals in those 5 counties. Interested parties from outside the 5 counties should contact FRN for registration information.

TO REGISTER: Please send completed bottom portion of this flyer to: FAMILY RESOURCE NETWORK, 5250 Claremont Ave., Suite 148, Stockton, CA 95207; fax: 209-472-3673; Email: frnfamilies@aol.com.

REGISTRATION DUE BY January 8, 2013
If you need special accommodations, please contact FRN two weeks in advance at 209-472-3674 or 800-847-3030.

Using a QR app, snap a picture of this and you can see FRN’s upcoming workshops.

Please register me to attend FRN’s Making Sense of Social Security workshop on January 15, 2013.
[ ] I am a parent. [ ] I am a professional.

Name: ________________________________________________________________

Address:______________________________________________________________________________________________________________

City/Zip: ___________________________ Daytime Phone: ___________________________

My child is a VMRC consumer [ ] Yes [ ] No

Child’s name and date of birth: _____________________________________________

This workshop is offered in collaboration with Parents Helping Parents. Grant H328M120008